PARTNERING with HICKORY LOG

a personal care home

Hickory Log's mission is to provide a safe place to call home for men with special needs including intellectual disabilities, developmental disabilities, and traumatic brain injuries where they can hone their relational, vocational, and financial skills in a manner that champions independence within the personal care home model.

Our partners team with Hickory Log to provide a source of hope and stability for people living with special needs, and for their families. Together, we are creating a community of special needs men and women thriving beyond their natural abilities in all areas of life; specifically in the areas of education, relationships, vocation, and finances.
