a personal care home

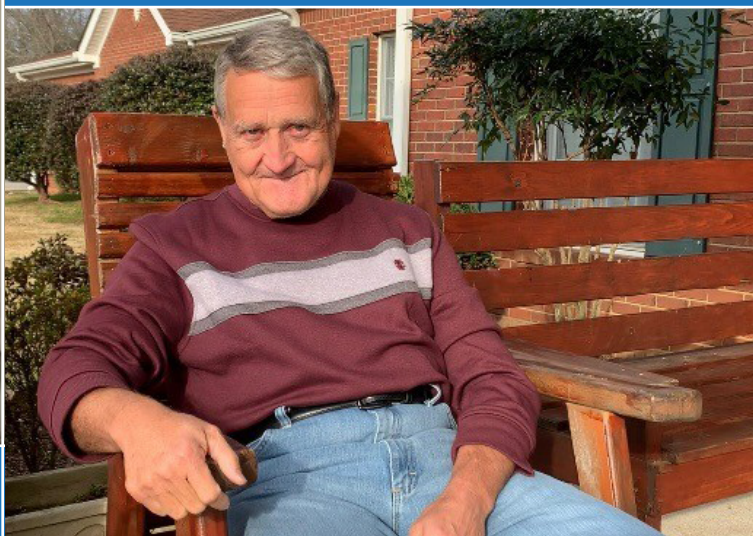

*A safe place to call home
for men with special needs*

Hickory Log provides a safe place to call home
for men with special needs

Located on twenty-three acres in Bartow County, Georgia, we are a private nonprofit personal care home that offers communal housing for up to twenty-four men living with developmental or intellectual disabilities as well as those with traumatic brain injuries. Some of our residents have called Hickory Log home for over twenty years; some as long as forty-five years.

“ My adult son has blossomed there!
I cannot say enough
good things
about the home, the staff and the opportunities!

A Personal Care Home for Men with Special Needs

Intake Requirements

Our residents are 18 years or older with an intellectual or developmental disability diagnosis. They are ambulatory and possess most self-help skills.

Basic Services

Our Residential Program provides meals, shelter, transportation, money management, and medication management. We also emphasize relational values, vocational training, and nutritional awareness.

Application Procedure

Access us via phone, email, web, mail, or personal visit. Psychological documents must be provided prior to placement

What We Offer

Our residents enjoy regular outings like going to the park, to the movies, shopping, and to restaurants. Those who go to church have their choice of Sunday worship services. They are offered three meals a day and receive transportation to the places they need to go.

Also, many of our residents are Special Olympic athletes and participate in the Special Olympics of Georgia Games.

Our Purpose

Hickory Log Personal Care Home serves our residents as well as their families. We realize that families wish to keep their loved ones close, but sometimes situations prevent that from happening. So, we have created an environment that our residents happily call home, and their families sleep well knowing their loved ones are safe and cared for.

Families are welcome to visit anytime and are encouraged to participate in our community events.

Please contact us to schedule a visit.

“I can't imagine
